Scouting Virginia Tech

Virginia Tech enters the week with a 20-22 record and an 8-13 mark in ACC action. The Hokies are 12-10 at home and 8-12 on the road. VT has posted a 3-6 mark against top-25 clubs.

The Hokies are coming off a series loss at home to Georgia Tech. The two teams split a doubleheader on Friday before GT won Saturday's finale, 6-4. Virginia Tech won Friday's second game, 8-4, after dropping the opener by a 13-3 score. Last Tuesday, the Hokies traveled to East Tennessee State, where they suffered a 7-4 loss.

Offensively, Virginia Tech is led by Jack Owens, with a .356 batting average and 67 hits. Tom Stoffel is second with 60 hits and a .349 average, while he leads the team with 43 RBIs.

On the mound, Tech's ERA leader is Tom Stoffel, who has a 3.00 ERA in six appearances and 9.0 innings pitched. Packy Naughton has a team-best 55 strikeouts in 47.1 innings, with 12 appearances and seven starts.

The Hokies are led by Patrick Mason, in his fourth season. He owns an 87-116-1 record in Blacksburg, after serving as an assistant coach for three seasons.

Former Big East rivals, West Virginia and Virginia Tech have met 87 times. WVU trails the all-time series 33-53-1 but has won two of the last three, including a 5-4 win at home in 2016. Under coach Randy Mazey, the Mountaineers are 2-1 against the Hokies. West Virginia is 17-15 at home, 11-27-1 in Blacksburg and 4-11 at a neutral site.

Last year, WVU scored a run in five of the first six innings and fought off a late comeback attempt by the Hokies to beat Virginia Tech, 5-4 in Morgantown.

- WVU was out-hit by VT, but a pair of errors helped result in three unearned Mountaineer runs.
- Right-hander Braden Zarbnisky got the start and earned his first victory as a starter. In 4.0 innings, he did not give up a run on three hits with three strikeouts and a walk.
- First baseman Jackson Cramer accounted for two of WVU's eight hits. He added a solo home run in the fifth inning. It was the sixth multi-hit showing in the last seven games for Cramer, the reigning Big 12 Player of the Week at the time.

WVU and Virginia Tech met for the first time in 1905. The Hokies won the first meeting, 6-9 in Morgantown. West Virginia got its first win in the third game of the series, in 1922. The Mountaineers won both games that year, 3-2 and 11-7, both in Blacksburg.

In 2014, West Virginia beat Virginia Tech 4-3 in Princeton, W.Va. The Mountaineers used three different comebacks, including a two-run eighth inning to secure the victory. Jacob Rice drove in the game winning run with a two-run double in the eighth inning after the Hokies had taken a 3-2 lead in the top of the inning.

In 2015, Virginia Tech posted a 13-3 win in Blacksburg. The Hokies used four multi-run innings and nine walks as WVU was held to three runs on nine hits.

On Deck: Mountaineers Host Oklahoma

WVU returns home for a series against Oklahoma, from April 28-30. The series begins on Friday, April 28, at 6:30 p.m. ET. Saturday's first pitch is set for 4 p.m., while Sunday's contest commences at noon. Sunday's finale will be broadcast locally on the Nexstar Media Group's network of statewide affiliates.

Last Time Out: Series Winning Streak Ends at K-State

West Virginia suffered its first Big 12 series loss of the season and became the final conference team to lose a Big 12 weekend series after going 1-2 at Kansas State. The loss snapped a stretch of five straight weekend series wins. Kyle Gray led WVU offensively, with three hits in each game.

- WVU opened the series with a back-and-forth, 9-7 win at K-State, trading the lead five times before scoring four runs in the eighth inning. Both teams had 13 hits, but reliever Braden Zarbnisky held the Wildcats to just two hits in the final 2.2 innings as he picked up his team-leading fifth win of the year. Trailing 7-5 in the eighth inning, WVU rallied with four runs on four hits with five stolen bases, including TJ Lake stealing home to score the tying run.
- The series was evened the following day with an 8-4 loss, as both teams scored two unearned runs. Reliever Sam Kessler suffered the loss, allowing just two hits and two unearned runs in 4.1 innings with a strikeout and two walks. Kessler relieved sophomore right-handed starter Michael Grove, who faced three batters in the first inning before leaving with an arm injury.
- WVU lost the finale, 11-4 on Sunday. Gray had another three hits, including a home run, and was a triple shy of the cycle. Freshman starter Alek Manoah pitched 4.0 innings and allowed one run on one hit with a strikeout and four walks, but earned a no-decision.

Mountaineers Remain In National Rankings

West Virginia is ranked nationally for the second consecutive week, at No. 25 in two polls. The Mountaineers entered the national rankings last week for the first time since 1982.

- West Virginia is ranked No. 25 by both Baseball America and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA). Collegiate Baseball Newspaper has WVU at No. 26 in its Top 30 poll.
- West Virginia is also receiving votes in the Coaches Poll.
- Additionally, WVU is ranked No. 9 in the NCAA RPI. West Virginia is one of three Big 12 teams in the top 10 and one of four in the top 15. The Big 12 has the No. 1 conference RPI in the country.
- Last week, the Mountaineers were ranked in five of the six major polls. WVU was ranked for the first time since 1982 and ranked in four polls for the first time in program history. West Virginia's highest ranking was No. 21, by Baseball America and D1 Baseball.

Sweeping the In-State Series, Again

West Virginia completed the season series sweep against in-state foe Marshall with an 8-4 win on April 18 in Charleston. The Mountaineers improved to 45-24 all-time against the Thundering Herd and 15-3 in the last 18 meetings. WVU has swept back-to-back season series against Marshall, marking the first sweep by either team since West Virginia won seven in a row from 1993-98.

In front of a near-capacity crowd of 4,217 at Appalachian Power Park on April 18, WVU scored in five of the first six innings. Ivan Gonzalez led the way offensively, with four hits, three RBIs, three runs scored. He hit his third home run of the season and was a triple shy of the cycle. Kyle Davis also added a home run. On the mound, WVU was fueled by a strong start from Kade Strowd and 5.0 lights-out relief innings from Riley Troutt, who finished the game to earn his first career win.

The Mountaineers won the season's first meeting, 14-7 on April 4, in Morgantown. Behind an offensive explosion that scored 14 runs on 16 hits, with the help of five Marshall errors, West Virginia benefited from a strong pitching performance from a freshmen duo of Isaiah Kearns and Sam Kessler. The Mountaineers were led by senior Jackson Cramer, who had a team-high four RBIs with a team-high-tying three hits with three runs scored. Cramer hit his fifth home run of the season and third in four games at home in the first inning to get the day started.

- Myers had another dominant outing on the mound on April 14, allowing just two earned runs on six hits with six strikeouts and a walk in 8.1 innings. He had his sixth quality start of the season and fifth in his last six starts. WVU Walks Off Twice Against No. 3 TCU

West Virginia earned a series victory against No. 3 TCU, thanks to two walk-off victories.

- The series began with a 5-4 win on Friday, April 14, as a sacrifice fly by sophomore catcher Ivan Gonzalez drove in the winning run after TCU tied the game at 4-4 with a three-run ninth inning. While ending TCU's 13-game winning streak, junior starter BJ Myers had another dominant outing, pitching 8.1 innings and allowing just two earned runs on six hits with six strikeouts and a walk. The WVU offense scored early and led 4-1 in the fifth inning, as TCU starter Jared Janczak pitched a season-low 4.2 innings and gave up a season-high four runs on six hits. Braden Zarbnisky pitched 0.2 innings and earned his team-high-tying fourth win.
- The Horned Frogs rallied for an 8-6 win on Saturday to even the series, scoring five runs in the eighth inning after the Mountaineers scored runs in each of the first four innings. Starter Michael Grove allowed two earned runs on six hits with nine strikeouts and three walks in 7.0 innings for his fourth quality start of the year, all coming in his last four starts. Junior Kyle Davis and sophomore Jimmy Galusky both homered.
- WVU again walked off to win the series on Sunday, 5-4. WVU scored two runs on no hits in the ninth inning, thanks to four walks and a hit batter. Senior Jackson Cramer walked in the tying run and sophomore Darius Hill walked in the winning run with two outs. West Virginia's bullpen combined to allow no runs on six hits with eight strikeouts in 5.2 innings before TCU closer Durbin Feltman blew his first career save in 19 attempts in the ninth. Senior Jackson Sigman pitched a scoreless ninth inning and picked up his first career win.

Grove Honored for Dominance

After taking a perfect game into the eighth inning, Michael Grove was recognized with several national and local honors on April 10. The Wheeling, West Virginia, native was named the National Pitcher of the Week by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, the Big 12 Pitcher of the Week and one of the National Players of the Week by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper.

Grove is the seventh Mountaineer in program history to earn national weekly honors from the NCBWA and he is the first from WVU to be named a player of the week by the NCBWA, the Big 12 or Collegiate Baseball this season. The Big 12 Pitcher of the Week honor is also the first of his career, after he earned Newcomer of the Week accolades twice as a freshman in 2016.

In WVU's 8-0 win over Kansas on April 8, Grove was dominant on the mound, retiring the first 23 batters he faced. He did not allow a baserunner until giving up a two-out single in the eighth inning.

In 8.0 innings pitched, Grove struck out a season-best 12 batters, one shy of tying his career high. Throwing 109 pitches, he did not allow a run and gave up one hit and no walks.

With his 12 strikeouts, Grove has struck out at least eight batters in four of his last five starts. While improving to 3-1 on the year, Grove had his third consecutive quality start of the season and sixth of his career.

WVU scored at least one run in all but two innings and batted around twice. The 22 runs are WVU's most since scoring 23 in 2010. Jackson Cramer had a career-best five hits, four extra-base hits and three doubles, all one shy of tying the school record. He added a career-high six RBIs, with a home run. Every WVU starter had at least two hits, while seven had at least three. All but one starter drove in at least one run and four had multiple RBIs.

The slate features a pair of games at the 2016 national champions, Coastal Carolina, and Big 12 home series against TCU and Texas Tech, both coming off College World Series appearances. WVU also will travel to Oklahoma State, another College World Series program from a year ago, Tulane, which reached the Regional final, and Southeastern Louisiana, for a total of 16 games against 2016 NCAA Tournament teams.

The 23-game home schedule at Monongalia County Ballpark includes games against reigning Big 12 regular season champion Texas Tech (May 5-7) and Big 12 Tournament champion TCU (April 14-16), as well as Oklahoma (April 28-30), Kansas (April 7-9), Pitt (May 16), Marshall (April 4) and Penn State (May 9). "Our fans played a big role in building a strong home field advantage at Monongalia County Ballpark last year, and I know they'll get to see some great baseball again this year."

Season Preview

By Charlie Healy

The West Virginia baseball team has something to prove in 2017.

Coming off their best season since joining the Big 12 Conference and in the Randy Mazey era, the Mountaineers came agonizingly close to making the NCAA Tournament in 2016 for the first time since 1996.

The Mountaineers went 36-22, reached their first-ever Big 12 championship game, and finished the year as one of the nation's hottest teams, winning 17 of their last 21. However, WVU was listed as one of the first four teams out when the NCAA Tournament field was announced.

The mindset of playing with an edge and proving doubters wrong began on May 30, 2016, after the 64-team NCAA Tournament field was revealed and just three Big 12 teams were invited. WVU, which finished fourth in the Big 12, as well as the league, felt slighted. Oklahoma State, TCU and Texas Tech proceeded to prove the conference's doubters wrong as all three teams advanced all the way to the College World Series.

Fast forward to 2017, and Mazey and the Mountaineers know they have what it takes to end WVU's NCAA Tournament drought. Now, it's on them to prove everyone outside of Morgantown wrong.

"We have something to prove," Mazey said. "We continue to feel like we're doing well, but I don't think anybody outside of WVU thinks we're good enough to play in the postseason. Every day we take the field, we're out to prove to the rest of the country that we belong.

"This group needs to play with an edge and play like they're mad, and they need to be because there was a whole group of people last year who told them they weren't good enough. It's a pretty good sign going into this year that they are out there trying to prove to a lot of people how good they are."

That begins with embracing the process of a 56-game season. From the start of practice in the fall, the mindset was to focus on the process – training and competing to be the best every day.

From eating right and training hard every day to getting enough sleep, the 35 players on the roster are embracing that process. It helps that seven of nine starting position players return, along with three starting pitchers who have had plenty of Big 12 success and a strong corps of relievers in the bullpen.

Bolstering that group is the highest-rated recruiting class in program history.

"We've got guys back from last year who have had some success, and we've added some guys to that," Mazey said. "We've got some pretty good depth in the lineup that we can interchange guys and rest other guys when we need to. I'm pretty excited about the offense that we're going to be able to put out there."

The question marks, and the reason the Mountaineers are ready to prove people wrong, are that the missing pieces from last year's team all made an impact. Of the six major departures from a year ago, two were drafted and two more signed free agent contracts with Major League Baseball organizations last summer. In total, five of the six Mountaineers who saw extended playing time last year who did not return in 2017 played professionally last summer.

What the national experts don't see though, is how West Virginia has responded to those losses. Particularly, Mazey likes the offensive makeup of the 2017 Mountaineers.

"We've got a great mix. I think we have four or five guys who can hit double-digit homers on this team. Of the guys that don't, we have guys who can play some small ball. Jimmy Galusky, Kyle Gray and new center fielder Brandon White can really run, so that's a really neat mix. You look at Coastal Carolina last year, they won the national championship and that's what they did. A bunch of guys had a lot of homers, but they also were top 10 in the nation in sacrifice bunts too. I think we have that type of team offensively that we're going to be able to do that."

West Virginia hit .287 as a team last year, which ranked No. 3 in the Big 12 and was WVU's best average since joining the conference in 2013. Seven of nine starters and 11 position players return in 2017.

There aren't a lot of holes to fill in the starting lineup in the field. The newcomers add depth and bring plenty of success at the high school level.

"I like their energy and ability to help in spots where we needed help," Mazey said of the new faces on the roster. "We have a lot of guys back from last year, so we didn't need anyone to come in and just take over anywhere. The freshmen are going to get their chances."

Just like with the bats and in the field, there is a mix of experience and fresh faces on the mound. West Virginia has 10 pitchers returning from a staff that ranked third in the Big 12 with a 4.07 ERA.

Despite losing ERA leader Chad Donato, saves leader Blake Smith and wins leader Ross Vance, who all signed with MLB clubs last summer, the pieces are there to fill those holes. That includes starters Conner Dotson, Michael Grove and BJ Myers, all of whom have had success in the Big 12.

West Virginia is gaining respect within the league. The Big 12's coaches voted WVU fifth in the preseason coaches' poll, the Mountaineers' best-ever preseason ranking, and the 40 points in the poll were also a program best.

From the wealth of returning position players to a strong corps of returning pitchers and a much-heralded recruiting class, there is plenty of reason for optimism at Monongalia County Ballpark.

It's a group that wants to be that first team from West Virginia to make the NCAA Tournament since 1996. Now, all they have to do is go out there and do it.

Position-by-Position Breakdown

PITCHING

The Mountaineer pitching staff will be led by returning starters Conner Dotson, Michael Grove and BJ Myers, who combined for 21 starts a season ago.

The trio has seen plenty of success in the Big 12 and all played crucial roles in WVU's strong finish to the 2016 season.

Dotson, a junior, pitched in 20 games with four starts and tied for the team lead with seven wins. He was 3-0 as a starter, including a dominant postseason performance in a win over Oklahoma in the Big 12 Championship to send WVU to its first ever Big 12 title game. Dotson was named to the Big 12 All-Tournament Team.

Also a junior, Myers made 17 appearances with 10 starts in 2016 after earning Freshman All-America honors in 2015. Myers won five games as a sophomore and pitched 4.2 strong innings in relief at the Big 12 Championship in WVU's win over No. 5 Texas Tech.

Grove, a sophomore, made a big impact as a freshman, earning All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team honors. A Wheeling, West Virginia, native, he made seven starts, posting a 2.70 ERA.

"BJ, Michael and Conner are three veteran guys who have been here," Mazey said. "I call Grove a veteran just because he pitched so much down the stretch. Those guys could be as good as anybody out there, I feel pretty good about that. Early on, when pitch counts aren't as high, you have to use a lot more people but when those guys settle in and start doing their thing, I feel really good about flipping them the ball."

After Dotson, Grove and Myers, there are plenty of options. Eight returning arms, and as many as nine newcomers, will be in the bullpen. Two key pieces, a fourth starter and a closer, have to be development.

Among the returners, those options could be senior Jackson Sigman, junior Shane Ennis and sophomores Tanner Campbell and Braden Zarbnisky.

Sigman made 20 appearances last year, including key stops in each game of a three-game sweep of Texas. Zarbnisky was pivotal as a starter and a reliever, making 12 appearances and four starts. Ennis appeared in eight games, while Campbell made five starts.

Freshmen Alek Manoah, Carter Camp and Isaiah Kearns have shown promise during the preseason.

"Beyond our starters, we're going to have to piece it together, try to find a fourth starter, someone who can finish the game at the end," Mazey said. "Alek Manoah has stepped up and looks like he could finish some games, Braden Zarbnisky has thrown really well, so he'll be in the mix somewhere. A couple of freshmen, including Carter Camp and Isaiah Kearns have thrown really well. We have options, but it's a little scary when guys haven't proven themselves and had success. You have to learn how to have success at this level.”

The pitching staff is where the Mountaineers saw their biggest losses, headlined by Chad Donato, Blake Smith and Ross Vance.

Donato and Smith were drafted, while Vance signed a free agent contract. Donato was drafted in the 11th round by the Houston Astros, Smith was selected in the 29th round by the Los Angeles Angels and Vance signed with the St. Louis Cardinals organization.

Donato made 15 starts and led the team with a 3.27 earned run average, while Vance made 13 starts and had a team-high-tying seven wins. Smith, who made 25 appearances, had eight saves, second-most in program history.

West Virginia's 13 saves rank No. 2 in the WVU record books. Manoah and Zarbnisky have led the charge to earn the closing spot early in the season.

“Could be Alek Manoah, a big freshman from Florida,” Mazey said. It could be Braden Zarbnisky, who had days where he showed a high-level breaking ball, a swing-and-a-miss breaking ball. You know at the back end you have to have somebody who can make batters swing and miss. The closer could be by committee early on until somebody wins it, but we have a couple of capable guys back there.”

INFIELD

The Mountaineers return every starter on the infield. Despite featuring one senior and three sophomores, the foursome return experience, solid defense and offensive potential.

“We're very athletic in the infield,” Mazey said “We have some options, with guys moving in and out. We feel really good about our team defensively. With Cole Austin, Jimmy Galusky, Kyle Gray and Jackson Cramer, plus guys like Marques Inman, Alek Manoah, T.J. Lake and Kevin Brophy, we have different options.”

Jackson Cramer, one of two seniors on the 2017 roster, leads the infield.

Cramer played in all but two games at first base last season, leading the team with 45 RBI and a .535 slugging percentage, while finishing second with nine home runs, 60 hits, 14 doubles and 32 walks. He was third with a .300 batting average and 34 runs scored. He earned All-Big 12 Second Team honors and was a three-time Big 12 Player of the Week.

Cramer also had a 10-game hitting streak and opened the season reaching base in 50 consecutive games, 30 games coming in 2016 and 20 carrying over from 2015.

“Jackson had to be one of the hottest hitters in the nation the second half of last year,” Mazey said. “I think a lot of it had to do with when that streak ended, nobody was asking him about it or talking about it and he just went out and started hitting. He could not have cared less if he got a hit or not and ended up getting a lot more because of it. If he just relaxes, goes out and plays, he's the guy in our lineup that the other teams look at him and say, 'wow is that guy still there?' Jackson has been in the middle of their lineup for three straight years so, he's got a chance to have a really good year for us if he just relaxes.”

The rest of the starters on the infield are sophomores, but they do not lack experience.

At second base, Kyle Gray started 16 games as a freshman and had 35 starts in the outfield. He hit .270 with 47 hits, 22 RBI and showed his speed with a team-high 10 stolen bases.

Jimmy Galusky mans shortstop. The Arthurdale, West Virginia, native was named to the All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team and started 57 games at shortstop as a freshman. He hit .282 with 53 hits and 17 RBI and was second on the team with five game-winning hits.

“Jimmy is probably the best shortstop in the league,” Mazey said. “He had the fewest errors of, I think, any shortstop in the Big 12 and ended up somewhere around .270-.280. If Jimmy could just get a little better offensively every year, by the time he leaves, he's got a chance to be as good as any shortstop that's played here.”

Cole Austin is expected to man the hot corner. He made 39 starts as a freshman, 27 at second base and 12 at third. Austin had 32 hits in 41 games with four home runs, six doubles and seven stolen bases in eight attempts.

Austin was one of three players with at least 10 starts at third base. The list also features junior Kyle Davis and sophomore Ivan Gonzalez. Davis is expected to play primarily in left, and Gonzalez will take over the primary responsibilities behind the plate.

“We've tried a couple different things,” Mazey said of the third base position. “Cole Austin has spent time over there and has really good hands and likes it over there, so that might be a spot for him. On days when Ivan doesn't catch, he can always go out there. He went out there last year, literally not having practiced there, and looked like Brooks Robinson on some days. We can juggle that spot a little bit more than the others.”

With Cramer, Gray, Galusky and Austin, along with capable backups, the WVU infield has its sights set on a big year.

OUTFIELD

In the outfield, a pair of star-studded corner outfielders return, while a center fielder needs to be developed.

Right field is anchored by Darius Hill. He started all 58 games and earned Freshman All-America honors after leading the Mountaineers with 75 hits, 20 doubles and a .511 slugging percentage in 2016.

Kyle Davis is in left field. Also a Freshman All-American, in 2015, Davis led WVU with 10 home runs, 39 walks and 52 runs scored and hit .280 as a sophomore in 2016. Davis started 56 games last year, splitting time between third base, left field and designated hitter.

“Kyle has turned himself into a really good left fielder so he's going to stay out there and he's turned into a well-rounded player,” Mazey said. “The last couple years it's been mostly offense. His defense was okay, but now, through his own work ethic and to his credit, he has rounded his game out pretty well.”

In center field, Mazey has a couple of options. One is sophomore Zarbnisky, who started 14 games in the outfield last year, and the other is freshman Brandon White.

“Kyle Davis and Darius Hill are middle-of-the-lineup guys who have turned themselves into really good outfielders,” Mazey said. “They're going to hopefully hold down the corners, and we have some options in center field. One is Braden Zarbnisky, who played there last year. Brandon White has really stepped up and shown that he can be a great defender out there. We have options and can play with some different lineups and get different guys in the game. It's just knowing which ones to put out there at the right times.”

CATCHER

Catcher is a position where the Mountaineers lost a lot, but very well might gain just as much.

Ivan Gonzalez (who went by Ivan Vera last year), returns as a sophomore after a Freshman All-America campaign in 2016. He led the team with a .381 batting average and a .437 on-base percentage recorded 51 hits, 23 RBI and nine doubles.

Gonzalez came to WVU as a catcher and started eight games. He was a backup to junior Ray Guerrini, but his hot bat forced Mazey to put him in the lineup. That's where third base came in, a position Gonzalez hadn't played in years.

Gonzalez started the final 20 games of the year at third, allowing Guerrini to remain behind the plate. After Guerrini signed a free-agent contract with the Seattle Mariners organization last summer, Gonzalez went back to his natural position.

“Ivan has really caught and thrown well this spring,” Mazey said. “He's swinging the bat well. He's won that job hands down, but Nick Denicola and Chase Illig, we need to find ways to get them in the game. They're freshmen backing him up. We just have to pick our spots to get them experience.”
