WVU'S LAST GAME: NO. 12/13 WEST VIRGINIA 34, TCU 10

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Oct. 22, 2016) - West Virginia used four touchdown passes from Skyler Howard and another great defensive effort to defeat TCU, 34-10, in front of 61,780 fans at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The game was West Virginia's most complete of the season. Howard completed 70 percent of his passes and threw touchdown passes of 10, 22, 11 and 16 yards in leading the Mountaineer offense. The WVU special teams forced two fumbles, with one leading to a touchdown, while the defense held the Horned Frogs scoreless in the second half and well below their more than 40-point scoring average.

On the game's opening kickoff, Marvin Gross Jr. forced a fumble by TCU's Deante Gray, which was recovered by Nana Kyeremeh to start the momentum and put the home crowd into a frenzy.

Starting at the TCU 17-yard line, it took only three plays for Howard to find receiver Daikiel Shorts Jr. for a 10-yard scoring strike.

The fumble and subsequent touchdown were important, because West Virginia won the coin toss and elected to defer to the second half. With the Mountaineers getting the ball to start the third quarter, along with forcing a fumble on the opening kickoff, it basically took a drive and scoring chance away from the Horned Frogs and they never recovered.

A Rasul Douglas interception on TCU's actual first possession again put the Horned Frogs in a hole. West Virginia added to its lead at the 9:37 mark of the first quarter when Howard connected with Shelton Gibson for a 22-yard touchdown pass.

TCU cut into the West Virginia lead before the quarter ended on a Brandon Hatfield 30-yard field goal, ending a 62-yard drive in 11 plays.

The Horned Frogs again were on the march early in the second quarter and completed a 76-yard drive on Jaelan Austin's 11-yard reception from quarterback Kenny Hill to pull within four at 14-10.

But that's as close as the Horned Frogs would get to overcoming the fumble on the opening kickoff. The Mountaineer defense took over from there and blanketed the high-powered TCU offense the rest of the way.

West Virginia extended its lead in the second quarter to 21-10 and that's where it stayed going into the locker room after Gary Jennings hauled in an 11-yard pass from Howard for the score, ending a 67-yard drive.

Just as the fumble on the opening kickoff eliminated a scoring opportunity for the Horned Frogs, the Mountaineers made the most of their first possession of the second half. By controlling the clock for 7:36, the Mountaineers kept the Horned Frog offense off the field and added a 38-yard Mike Molina field goal for a 24-10 advantage.

The scoring drive took 15 plays and saw the Mountaineers convert on three third-down opportunities to open up the 14-point cushion.

West Virginia found the end zone for the fourth and final time with 1:02 left in the third quarter. Howard's fourth TD stike was a 16-yard completion to Ka'Raun White, putting the finishing touches on an 11-play drive.

The Mountaineers added a Molina 26-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to close the scoring. Molina's field goal ended a 5:51, 10-play drive giving West Virginia three drives of more than five minutes long. WVU's three scoring drives in the second half timed out at 7:36, 5:17 and 5:51 and eliminated any chance of a TCU comeback.

Aside from Howard's numbers, tailback Rushell Shell III was a workhorse for the Mountaineers, turning in his second straight 100-yard performance. Shell's numbers showed 24 carries for 117 yards with a long run of 28 yards and a 4.9 yards per carry average. He also turned in two catches for 35 yards with a long reception of 28.

Shorts topped the West Virginia receivers with four catches for 74 yards and one score as Howard completed passes to six different receivers in the game. West Virginia's defense was led by linebackers Justin Arndt and Al-Rasheed Benton with six tackles each.

The TCU offense was paced by running back Kyle Hicks with 103 yards on 15 carries. Hill passed for 148 yards, with his favorite target being Daniel Walsh with four receptions. The TCU defense was led by Travin Howard with 11 tackles, while the unit as a whole collected five sacks and 10 tackles for loss.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 158 yards rushing and 231 passing to total 389 yards of offense. TCU came in at 152 yards on the ground and 148 through the air for 300 yards of total offense.

West Virginia's edge in time of possession came into play with the Mountaineers holding a commanding 33:40 to 26:20 edge, which basically kept Howard and the Mountaineer offense on the field and Hill and the Horned Frog attack off the field.

The win raised the West Virginia record to 6-0 overall and 3-0 in the Big 12. It marked the first time the Mountaineers have started the season 6-0 since 2006.

LAST TIME VS OSU: No. 21/19 OKLAHOMA STATE 33, WEST VIRGINIA 26 (OT)

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Oct. 10, 2015) - Despite a second half comeback that saw a 15-point deficit erased, West Virginia could not overcome four turnovers and lost a 33-26 overtime decision to No. 21/19 Oklahoma State at sold-out Milan Puskar Stadium.

The Mountaineers started slow, which enabled the Cowboys to build a 17-2 lead at the half. The first score in the game came at the 4:45 mark of the first quarter when defensive lineman Emmanuel Ogbah recovered a Skyler Howard fumble in the end zone for a 7-0 OSU advantage.

Tailback Rushel Shell's fumble set up Oklahoma State's next score at the 14:02 mark of the second quarter. The Cowboys took advantage of great field position and padded their lead on Rennie Childs' one-yard run.

A Wendell Smallwood fumble deep in Oklahoma State territory was actually beneficial to the Mountaineers. While the fumble ended a scoring threat, it backed the Cowboys so deep that WVU defensive lineman Kyle Rose's sack of OSU quarterback Mason Rudolph resulted in a safety and the first two points of the night for the Mountaineers.

First-half scoring ended at the 3:43 mark of the second quarter, when the Cowboys converted on their longest drive of the half (76 yards) with a 21-yard Ben Grogan field goal, giving them a 17-2 lead at the half.

West Virginia got the ball to start the second half, and the comeback was on. The opening possession of the third quarter resulted in West Virginia's first touchdown, as Smallwood rushed in from 29 yards out, putting the score at 17-9.

The Cowboys were not rattled and answered the scored at the 9:20 mark of the third, when backup QB J.W. Walsh hit Blake Jarwin in the back of the end zone for a four-yard scoring reception. After what turned out to be a key extra point miss, the Cowboys led 23-9 with plenty of time left.

West Virginia scored the next 10 points in the game, with the first seven coming on Howard's 48-yard bomb in stride to receiver Shelton Gibson to put the final touch on a 75-yard drive.

Josh Lambert's 38-yard field goal to start the fourth quarter made it a 23-19 game, but the Cowboys seem poised to put the game away on Devante Averette's interception on the WVU 11-yard line. The Mountaineer defense held the Cowboys to a field goal, setting the stage for the offense to tie the game.

Howard led the Mountaineers on a 10-play, 68-yard drive that used a good mixture of the run and pass. It was Howard's three-yard rush with just 2:44 remaining that tied the game at 26-26, thanks to the OSU missed extra point back in the third quarter, and set the stage for overtime.

Oklahoma State started with the ball first and got down to the WVU two-yard line where the Cowboys faced a 4th-and-1. Head Coach Mike Gundy elected to go for a first down instead of kicking a field goal, and the run by Walsh not only resulted in a first down but a touchdown.

West Virginia's chance in overtime saw the Mountaineers get down to the OSU four-yard line, but the game ended when they could not convert on fourth down.

The Mountaineer running game was strong behind Smallwood, who rushed for 147 yards. Howard finished with 188 yards passing, and Gibson led all receivers with 84 yards. Shaq Petteway led the defensive effort with eight tackles.

Rudolph led the Oklahoma State rushers from his quarterback position with 48 yards in addition to 218 yards passing. David Glidden topped the Cowboy receiving effort with five catches for 50 yards, while Tre Flowers led the defense with 13 tackles.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 255 yards on the ground and 188 through the air for 443 yards of total offense. The Oklahoma State running game struggled to 134 yards rushing and mixed with 228 yards passing left the Cowboys with 362 yards of total offense.

LAST TIME AT OSU: No. 22/25 WEST VIRGINIA 34, OKLAHOMA STATE 10

STILLWATER, Okla. (Oct. 25, 2014) - No. 22/25 West Virginia jumped out to a quick 14-0 first quarter lead and never looked back in defeating Oklahoma State, 34-10, in front of a Homecoming crowd of 59,124 at Boone Pickens Stadium.

Oklahoma State took the game's first possession from its own 25 to the WVU 38-yard line. Facing a 4th-and-4, the Cowboys failed on a surprising fourth-down attempt, which put the Mountaineer offense in good field position.

Quarterback Clint Trickett quickly took advantage of the good starting position, as he directed a five-play scoring drive that ended with a 19-yard touchdown pass to receiver Kevin White. Big plays in the drive came from running back Wendell Smallwood with a reception of 14 yards and a run of 20 to keep the chains moving.

After the Mountaineer defense held the Cowboy offense on downs, Trickett went right back to the air three minutes later on West Virginia's next possession.

The Mountaineers marched 90 yards in just three plays, keyed by a 79-yard scoring toss from Trickett to senior receiver Mario Alford. The play was West Virginia's longest from scrimmage to date on the season and gave the Mountaineers a 14-0 lead with 7:49 left in the opening quarter.

The Mountaineer defense held strong for the remainder of the quarter, as true freshman defensive back Dravon Henry stopped another Cowboy drive with an interception.

Oklahoma State scored its first points early in the second quarter, when kicker Ben Grogan connected on a 40-yard field goal to put the score at 14-3 at the 14:11 mark.

After a West Virginia drive stalled, the Cowboy offense went on the attack once again, and used a 51-yard rush by Brandon Sheperd, and 30 yards rushing on three plays from tailback Tyreek Hill to move to the WVU eight-yard line. OSU quarterback Daxx Garman then found Teddy Johnson open in the flat for an eight-yard touchdown reception, pulling the Cowboys to 14-10 with 8:34 left in the half.

Oklahoma State had another scoring chance thwarted by the WVU defense, when the Cowboys reached the Mountaineer nine-yard line. A big 10-yard sack of Garman and a missed field goal by Grogan gave the Mountaineers the 14-10 advantage at the half.

The strong defensive play by the Mountaineers continued in the second half. OSU would not convert on a third-down play until the middle of the fourth quarter and wound up just two of 15 on third down. The Cowboys turned in yardage, but no points in the final two quarters.

Meanwhile, Trickett and the Mountaineer offense were slowly putting the game out of reach. WVU added a 39-yard Josh Lambert field goal in the third quarter, and a 43-yarder from Lambert for a 20-10 lead with 10:14 left in the game.

When the Cowboys went on the offensive again to try to close the gap, Henry turned his second interception of the game into a 52-yard touchdown and essentially put the game away. Dreamius Smith added an insurance score with just over 3:00 left, when he scampered 40 yards for a touchdown, putting the final score at 34-10 in favor of the road team.

Trickett was a solid 21-of-30 passing for 238 yards and two scores. Smallwood, subbing for the injured Rushel Shell, turned in his second straight 100-yard rushing performance with 132 yards on 23 carries, and Alford finished with seven catches for 136 yards. Leading the way for the WVU defense was safety Karl Joseph with eight tackles, followed by linebacker Nick Kwiatkoski with seven stops and lineman Kyle Rose with six.

Oklahoma State got 242 yards passing from Garman, but he had 20 incompletions on his stat line. Hill finished with 78 yards rushing, while James Washington caught five passes for 87 yards.

The Cowboy defense was led by Jordan Sterns with an impressive 20 tackles and one tackle for loss.

Final numbers showed a very even game as West Virginia gained 210 yards rushing compared to OSU's 194. Passing numbers had the Mountaineers with 238 to Oklahoma State 242, putting the final offensive numbers at 448 for West Virginia and 436 for the Cowboys.

The win gave West Virginia a second straight victory over Oklahoma State and a 4-2 edge in the all-time series. The victory was also WVU's sixth of the season, making the Mountaineers bowl eligible after eight games.

HOLGORSEN'S OFFENSIVE OUTPUT

✓ Since 2005, Dana Holgorsen has been the mastermind behind some of the nation's most prolific offenses. Starting as the offensive coordinator at Texas Tech, then Houston and Oklahoma State, and now as the head coach at West Virginia, his offensive units are known for their ability to move the ball, pile up yardage and score a plethora of points.

GAME 1: WEST VIRGINIA 26, MISSOURI 11

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Sept. 3, 2016) - West Virginia opened the 2016 season with a solid 26-11 victory the SEC's Missouri, in front of 60,125 fans at Milan Puskar Stadium.

A beautiful Labor Day Saturday, with an 81 degree temperature, provided the setting for the start of the 125th year of West Virginia football. Festivities for the day included the retirement of Bruce Bosley's No. 77, recognition of WVU's five Olympic medalists from the 2016 Rio games, including Gold medalist Ginny Thrasher and the wearing of a special helmet logo celebrating the 125th year.

The Mountaineers wasted little time in setting the tone for the game and sending the home folks away happy. Racking up 10 first-quarter points and the game's first 13 points, West Virginia grabbed the lead and never relinquished it.

At the 5:41 mark of the first quarter, redshirt junior Mike Molina kicked the first field goal of his career, a 19-yarder that started the scoring for the season, giving WVU a 3-0 lead.

Before the end of the quarter, senior tailback Rushel Shell III finished off a nine-play 88-yard drive with a 23-yard run, giving WVU its first touchdown of 2016 and a 10-0 advantage.

In the second quarter, Molina added his second field goal, this time from 26 yards, to give West Virginia a 13-0 cushion. Missouri did strike before the half ended as Tucker McCann's 24-yard field goal finished off a nine-play, 68-yard drive and provided the Tigers their first points of the season.

Leading 13-3 at the half, West Virginia started the third quarter strong and essentially put the game away by outscoring the Tigers 10-0 in the quarter.

The opening possession of the third quarter saw the Mountaineers turn in an eight-play, 70-yard scoring drive, which was finished off by tailback Justin Crawford's first career touchdown from one-yard away.

Later in the quarter, Molina was good on his third field goal, as his 21-yarder ended a 67-yard drive and upped West Virginia's advantage to 23-3 heading into the fourth.

Missouri outscored the Mountaineers in the fourth quarter by scoring eight points in the game's final two minutes, but it was far too little and too late.

Molina struck for the fourth time at the 7:26 mark with his longest field goal, 33 yards, to up the WVU margin to 26-3. The Tigers scored their first touchdown of 2016 with 1:49 left, as quarterback Drew Lock found receiver Chris Black for an eight-yard scoring toss. Lock then connected with receiver J'Mon Moore for the two-point conversion to end the scoring at 26-11 in favor of the Mountaineers.

WVU's Skyler Howard finished with 253 yards passing, while Crawford made the most of his debut with 101 yards rushing and one score, averaging 4.8 yards per carry. Shell added 90 yards rushing and one touchdown, giving the Mountaineers a strong one-two combination in the running game

Receiver Daikiel Shorts turned in the first 100-yard receiving game of his career, and was Howard's favorite target with eight receptions for 131 yards with a long catch of 29 yards.

The Mountaineer defense received eight tackles each from Antonio Crawford and Justin Arndt to pace the unit.

Lock totalled 280 yards passing for Missouri and the Tigers had two 100-yard receivers. Moore caught eight passes for 104 yards, while Black added 102 yards on six receptions. Leading the Tiger defense was Michael Scherer with 10 stops.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 241 yards rushing and 253 passing to total 494 yards of offense. Missouri turned in 180 yards on the ground to go along with 282 passing for 462 yards of offense.

Seven Mountaineers earned their first career start in the game and a whopping 21 players saw action for the first time in a West Virginia Uniform.

The win broke a five-game losing streak for the Mountaineers against SEC teams and now puts them at 6-5 in their last 11 games versus the conference. West Virginia is now 25-25-1 all-time against the SEC.

The victory also evened WVU's all-time series record against Missouri at 3-3, and marked the 13th straight year that the Mountaineers have won their home opener at Milan Puskar Stadium. Head coach Dana Holgorsen has won six of those 13 straight and now stands at 6-0 all-time in home openers.

GAME 2: WEST VIRGINIA 38, YOUNGSTOWN STATE 21

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Sept. 10, 2016) - West Virginia used five touchdown passes, including three of more than 50 yards to defeat Youngstown State, 38-21, at Milan Puskar Stadium.

Quarterback Sklyer Howard threw all five touchdown passes, which tied his career-best, and his 389 yards passing were the second-best of his career. He finished the day with 20 completions and added 50 yards rushing.

Youngstown State played the Mountaineers to a draw in the first half. However, the 91 degree temperatures for the day could have taken a toll on the Penguins as the Mountaineers depth dominated YSU to the tune of 24-7 in the second half.

West Virginia struck first with 3:16 left in the first quarter on a 53-yard pass play from Howard to Ka'Raun White to end an 80-yard drive.

Youngstown State came back to score the next 14 points to take a 14-7 lead at the 10:13 mark of the second quarter.

The Penguins' first score came early in the second quarter on a one-yard run by Martin Ruiz, capping a 72-yard drive.

YSU took the lead on a Ricky Davis 74-yard touchdown pass to Alvin Bailey that finished off an 80-yard drive in just three plays.

The Youngstown State game plan was working at this point with a methodical approach and ball-control offense to keep the ball away from the Mountaineers.

To counter, West Virginia had to strike when it had its chances and the big play worked on this day for the home team.

A 54-yard touchdown pass from Howard to Shelton Gibson took care of the deficit with 3:15 left in the half.

The Mountaineers had a chance to take the lead into the locker room, but a last-second missed field goal by Mike Molina kept the game knotted at 14.

Third-quarter action saw the Mountaineers rack up 17 points to take a 31-14 advantage. West Virginia's first possession in the quarter provided a nine-play, 86-yard drive and ended on a Howard 11-yard pass to Daikiel Shorts Jr.

Leading 21-14, West Virginia scored on its next two possessions as Molina made good on a 32-yard field goal. That scoring drive covered 65 yards, and the Mountaineers were starting to tally big numbers on the offensive side of the ball as their depth continued to wear down the Penguins in the scorching heat.

Taking advantage of their scoring chances, WVU's last touchdown of the third was a 57-yard touchdown pass from Howard to Gibson as the duo connected on their second score in the game.

YSU's backup quarterback, Trent Hosick, entered the game in the fourth quarter and engineered a nine-play drive that ended on his 15-yard scoring run, cutting WVU's lead to 31-21 with 8:44 left to play.

The Mountaineers added a score with 3:18 left to play, when Howard went to the air one more time and found true freshman tailback Kennedy McKoy for a 21-yard reception, the first TD of McKoy's WVU career.

Aside from Howard's numbers, tailback Rushell Shell III was strong with 84 yards rushing and a 5.2 average. Gibson turned in a career day with 171 yards receiving, followed by Shorts with 93 and White with 88 receiving yards. Defensive back Rasul Douglas led the defensive effort with 11 tackles, while Al-Rasheed Benton pulled in the first interception of his career.

For Youngstown State, Davis finished with 189 yards passing, and his top target was Bailey with three catches for 92 yards. Davis also led the Penguins in rushing with 62 yards and a 4.8 yards per carry average. Jameel Smith led the Youngstown State defense with 12 stops.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 235 yards rushing and 389 passing to total 624 yards of total offense. Youngstown State's final numbers came in at 185 yards on the ground and 220 passing for 405 total yards.

The victory gave West Virginia a 2-0 record all-time against Youngstown State and upped the Mountaineers' record to 17-0 all-time against FCS teams and 6-0 vs. the FCS under head coach Dana Holgorsen.

GAME 3: WEST VIRGINIA 35, BYU 32

LANDOVER, Md. (Sept. 24, 2016) - West Virginia and Brigham Young squared off in a neutral site game at the home of the Washington Redskins, and the Mountaineers came out a 35-32 winner at FedExField in Landover, Maryland.

The game did not disappoint in terms of excitement and big plays and came down to the final minute, as West Virginia turned in two big defensive plays in the fourth quarter to earn the victory.

With WVU leading, 35-32, Jeremy Tyler's interception with 4:15 left ended one Cougar threat. Iowa transfer Maurice Fleming's interception at the two-yard line in the final minute ended the last BYU chance and sealed the victory for the Mountaineers.

To get the game started, West Virginia used a 5:38 drive to march 88 yards on 13 plays for a 7-0 lead, when tailback Rushel Shell III rushed in from six-yards away. The big play in the drive was a 35-yard pass play from quarterback Skyler Howard to junior receiver Shelton Gibson.

BYU answered on its first possession with a 6:33 drive that lasted 12 plays and covered 78 yards. The Cougars tied the game on a 25-yard pass from Taysom Hill to Mitch Juergens.

Only 2:44 remained in the opening quarter and each team only had the ball once, as long sustained drives consumed much of the quarter.

The Cougars grabbed their only lead of the game with 14:17 left in the half with a Rhett Almond 22-yard field goal. A 56-yard run by tailback Jamaal Williams set up the score.

West Virginia regained the lead for good as Shell's second touchdown in the game came at the 9:50 mark of the first half, when he powered in from the two-yard line to end an 86-yard drive.

Leading 14-10, WVU cornerback Rasul Douglas made Hill pay for an errant pass, returning the interception 54 yards for West Virginia's third score of the game with 2:23 left before halftime.

Brigham Young quickly moved the ball 43 yards and ended the half on Almond's 25-yard field goal to put its deficit at 21-13 heading into the locker room.

Much like West Virginia started the game with a long scoring drive, Brigham Young did the same to start the second half. A 4:08 drive ended with a seven-yard touchdown run by Williams to tighten the game at, 21-19, early in the third.

However, there was no panic on the West

Virginia sideline, and after the defense forced a BYU fumble, the Mountaineers stretched their lead to 28-19 on Howard's five-yard scoring run with 2:28 left in the third quarter.

West Virginia's offense went back to work in the fourth quarter and turned in an impressive 99-yard drive highlighted by a 32-yard connection from Howard to Gibson. A nine-yard scoring reception by receiver Daikiel Shorts Jr. gave the Mountaineers what seemed to be a comfortable 35-19 lead with 11:20 left in the game.

But Brigham Young would not go away, which set up late game excitement on the neutral field.

Hill brought the Cougars back to within 10, 35-

25, at the 9:09 mark, as he engineered a 67-yard drive that ended with a three-yard touchdown run by Williams.

After a West Virginia punt, Hill again had the Cougars on the move with a nine-play, 72 yard drive that ended with an 18-yard touchdown pass to Moroni Laulu-Pututau.

Only 4:15 was left, but WVU could not run out the clock, giving the ball back to BYU. Tyler's interception ended one Cougar drive, but when the Mountaineers fumbled on the BYU four-yard line with 2:36 left, the Cougars had one last chance. Needing only a field goal to tie, BYU moved the ball to the West Virginia 28-yard line, but Fleming's interception of Hill ended BYU's final threat.

West Virginia got big numbers from Gibson with 144 yards receiving, while Howard finished with 332 yards passing. The defensive effort came up with three total interceptions of Hill and was paced by Kyzir White with nine tackles.

Williams was an outstanding rusher for the Cougars as he finished with 169 yards (128 in the first half) and two scores. Not only did Hill pass for 241 yards, but he turned in another 101 yards rushing to join Williams in leading the BYU offense. Fred Warner collected 14 tackles for the Cougar defense.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 149 yards on the ground and 332 through the air to total 481 yards of total offense. Brigham Young finished with 280 yards rushing and 241 passing for 521 total yards.

The Mountaineers won the turnover battle by a 4-2 count. The big play extended scoring drives of 99, 88, 86 and 59 yards, along with a 54-yard interception return. All those factors added up to improve West Virginia's record to 3-0 on the season and 1-0 all-time vs. BYU.

GAME 4: WEST VIRGINIA 17, KANSAS STATE 16

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Oct. 1, 2016) - West Virginia was looking for its first Big 12 victory over Kansas State in four tries and finally broke through in the fifth effort with a 17-16 win over the Wildcats in front of 61,701 on Homecoming at Milan Puskar Stadium.

While the offense struggled in the first half, the West Virginia defense kept the Mountaineers in the game by holding Kansas State to three field goals on key possessions and keeping the Wildcats out of the end zone.

Kansas State's chance for the road win ended with 2:03 remaining, when Matthew McCrane missed a 43-yard field goal, enabling the Mountaineers to run out the clock.

After being shut out in the first half for the first time since 2013 and first time at home since 2005, the Mountaineers used a spark in the running game from Justin Crawford, who delivered several key runs. The passing attack was aided by clutch catches from junior receiver Shelton Gibson to keep drives alive and move the chains in big chunks of yards.

The Mountaineers had the first crack at scoring, but senior kicker Josh Lambert missed on 30-yard field goal attempt to end an early drive. The fourth game of the season marked the return of the former Lou Groza Award finalist after being suspended for the first three games of the season.

After Lambert's miss, Kansas State came up with the game's first turnover when WVU quarterback Skyler Howard's pass to receiver Ka'Raun White was bobbled and intercepted by KSU's Elijah Lee.

The Wildcats made the Mountaineers pay for the turnover with a seven-play, 48-yard drive that ended with a two-yard scoring run by quarterback Jesse Ertz.

Kansas State extended its lead to 10-0 at the 12:04 mark of the second quarter, when McCrane converted a 37-yard field goal attempt. The scoring drive covered nine plays and 46 yards.

West Virginia could not muster any scoring chances in the second quarter and fell behind 13-0 at the half when McCrane converted on a 31-yard field goal with 1:06 remaining. Ertz completed a pass of 37 yards and tailback Dalvin Warmack had a big 18-yard rush in the drive to set up the score.

Once again, the Mountaineer defense was able to keep the Wildcats out of the end zone on the 11-play scoring drive, which consumed more than 5:00 in the quarter. Trailing only 13-0 at the half was a plus for West Virginia, which was outgained 178-174, in total yards at the halfway point.

West Virginia got the ball first in the second half, and needed to put some points on the board. The offense delivered with a 55-yard drive and a 37-yard field goal by Lambert. Howard hit receiver Daikiel Shorts Jr. for a 31-yard pass play to move the chains on third down and keep the drive alive.

After Lambert's field goal, Kansas State struck again with a 58-yard kickoff return by Byron Pringle setting the Wildcat offense up in good field position. Ertz took care of the rest as he rushed for 25 of the 37 yards in the nine-play drive, leading to a 22-yard field goal by McCrane for a 16-3 Wildcat advantage. However, once again, the Mountaineer defense kept KSU out of the end zone, which would be crucial heading into the final stanza.

Fourth quarter action belonged to West Virginia as the Mountaineers used two scoring drives and a big defensive stand to finally break through and defeat Kansas State.

The Mountaineers scored their first touchdown of the game with 13:41 left to play on Crawford's one-yard run. The score was set up by Howard's 52-yard completion to Gibson.

With Kansas State leading 16-10, the Mountaineer defense continued to keep the game close, coming up with an interception and a three-and-out on the Wildcats' next two drives.

With the sellout crowd back in the game, Howard started the winning drive with 8:18 left to play. Nine snaps later, he found Jovon Durante for a seven-yard scoring toss to give the Mountaineers their first lead.

Howard finished with 298 yards passing, Crawford added 104 rushing and Gibson 104 yards receiving to lead the WVU offense. Jarrod Harper paced three defense with eight tackles.

KSU got 166 yards passing from Ertz followed by 61 receiving from Pringle and 53 from tailback Charles Jones. The Wildcat defense was led by Elijah Lee with eight tackles, one sack and one interception. McCrane hit his first three field goals, but could not convert on attempt number four.

Final totals showed West Virginia with 124 yards rushing and 298 passing to total 422 yards of offense. Kansas State finished with 120 yards on the ground and 166 through the air for 286 total yards.

West Virginia improved to 4-0 and won its Big 12 Conference opener for the first time since 2012. The victory broke an overall five-game losing streak to Kansas State.

GAME 5: NO. 20/18 WEST VIRGINIA 48, TEXAS TECH 17

LUBBOCK, TEXAS. (Oct. 15, 2016) - West Virginia gained an important Big 12 road victory with a dominating 48-17 victory over Texas Tech at Jones AT&T Stadium.

Texas Tech entered the Big 12 matchup as the No. 1 passing team in the nation and No. 2 in total offense and scoring, but that was before the Red Raiders met West Virginia defensive coordinator Tony Gibson and his 3-3-5 defense.

The Mountaineer defense dominated the Red Raider offense, holding it to a season low in points, breaking its 50-point home scoring streak and limiting the Texas Tech rushing attack to just 34 yards.

Meanwhile, the Mountaineer offense clicked on many cylinders with a 100-yard receiver and rusher, the highest scoring output of the season and outgaining the Red Raiders by 271 yards.

The Mountaineer defense dominated the Red Raider offense, holding it to a season low in points, breaking its 50-point home scoring streak and limiting the Texas Tech rushing attack to just 34 yards.

Pregame hype predicted a high-scoring shootout between the two teams and first-quarter action did not do anything to dispel the thinking.

West Virginia got on the board at the 9:30 mark of the first quarter on tailback Justin Crawford's 10-yard run, ending an impressive 91-yard drive. A 53-yard pass from quarterback Skyler Howard to receiver Daikiel Shorts Jr. proved to be the big play in the drive.

After a missed WVU field goal, Texas Tech took advantage of the field position to complete a 74-yard scoring drive, highlighted by a 44-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Patrick Mahomes to receiver Jonathan Giles. The scoring play tied the game at 7-7 with 1:51 left in the quarter.

However, West Virginia was left with enough time to take a 10-7 lead after one quarter on a 34-yard field goal by kicker Mike Molina. A 51-yard pass play from Howard to Jovon Durante changed the field position and put the Mountaineers in field goal range.

After the Texas Tech touchdown, the West Virginia defense started to assert itself on the nation's No. 1 passing team. The Mountaineers held the Red Raiders to just three points on their next six possessions and 51 plays before a late fourth-quarter touchdown by Tech.

While the Mountaineer defense was putting the clamps on the Red Raiders, the offense kept clicking. Fourteen more points in the second quarter gave West Virginia a 24-7 halftime lead.

Crawford turned in his second touchdown on a five-yard pass play with Howard. Once again a big 47-yard pass play from Howard to Gary Jennings set up the score, which completed an 89-yard drive.

Then Howard got in on the scoring action just over two minutes later with an eight-yard run. Howard's 20-yard run and his 27-yard completion to Shorts were the big plays.

Texas Tech took the opening possession of the third quarter and came away with a 42-yard field goal by Clayton Hatfield to pull the Red Raiders within 14 points at 24-10.

However, the Mountaineers went on to score 17 straight points to put the game away.

Before the third quarter ended, Molina added a 22-yard field goal, before Howard engineered an eight-play, 83-yard drive early in the fourth and capped it off with a one-yard run for his second score of the afternoon. Freshman running back Kennedy McKoy provided the rushing spark in the second half, coming up with 56 yards on the ground in the drive.

The Mountaineers took advantage of a bad Tech snap on a punt to gain good field position, setting up a 14-yard touchdown run by Rushel Shell III.

The Red Raiders added a fourth quarter score, when backup quarterback Nic Shimonek hit Giles for a 16-yard touchdown reception.

In an effort to run out the fourth quarter clock, the Mountaineers turned in a 75-yard fourth quarter drive, which saw Shell add his second touchdown in the game. Between Shell and McKoy, WVU rushed the ball 10-straight times en-route to the end zone.

Howard turned in more than 400 yards of total offense with 318 yards passing and 89 yards rushing. Shorts reached 100 yards receiving on just three catches, while Shell finished with 104 yards rushing, just ahead of McKoy's 99 rushing yards.

Defensively, five Mountaineers turned in five tackles each, and the unit accumulated four sacks, eight tackles for a loss of 60 yards and one interception.

For Texas Tech, Mahomes finished with 305 yards passing, while Giles hauled in 136 yards receiving. The Red Raider defense was led by Jah'Shawn Johnson with 10 tackles.

Final totals showed West Virginia with 332 yards rushing and 318 passing for a balanced 650 yards of total offense. Texas Tech finished with 34 yards on the ground and 345 through the air for a final total of 379 yard of offense.

The win gave West Virginia its third straight victory over Texas Tech and raised its season record to 5-0 overall and 2-0 in Big 12 play. The Red Raiders fell to 3-3 overall and 1-2 in league play. Overall, the Mountaineers now lead the all-time series against the Red Raiders by a 4-2 count.
